from the grave?— Show me, Lord, your power— to save.

DAY AND NIGHT I CRY TO YOU:

free me from my gnawing fear;
 I am anxious, drained of strength,
 marked as one whose death is near—
 would I praise you from the grave?
 Show me, Lord, your power to save.

2 How the burden of your wrath
 leaves my soul in deep dismay!
 Why, so often through the years,
 have you turned your face away?
 As a prisoner of despair,
 am I banished from your care?

3 Even those I called my friends
 now consider me unknown;
 driven from my family,
 I must bear my grief alone.
 In the darkness, asking 'Why?'
 night and day to you I cry.
